Join us for an opportunity to deepen your understanding of class, race, and health equity. This event will feature a pre-recorded talk by Professor Ian Haney López along with a facilitated community conversation. He will speak about how the last 50 years of American political leadership and public policy has been shaped through race-based manipulation and appeals, resulting in public policies that reinforce deep-seated inequities in our society.

Ian Haney López is one of the nation's leading thinkers on racism's evolution since the civil rights era. A constitutional law scholar and chaired law professor at UC Berkeley, as well as a Senior Fellow at Demos, he is the author of several books including Dog Whistle Politics: How Coded Racial Appeals have Reinvented Racism and Wrecked the Middle Class.

We look forward to seeing you there!
